

CTHS (Ontario Division) Thoroughbred Industry Awards

Over 250 people gathered at the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society (Ontario Division) Annual Awards Dinner to honour the top Breeders of 2005, which was held on June 19, 2006 at the Verdi Hospitality Centre in Mississauga, Ontario.

Windways Farm captured top Thoroughbred honours with the Breeder of the Year Award, sponsored by Agri-Brands Purina. Windway's Farm and owner Jeff Begg were recognized for their successful contribution to the breeding industry, who produced two Queen's Plate winners – Wild Desert and Victor Cooley, as well as stakes winners Charming Ruckus, Dawn Watcher and Artic Mistral.

Awards were also presented to the breeders of the 2005 Top Stallions with 1st place presented to Archers Bay, 2nd place to Bold Executive, and 3rd place to Whiskey Wisdom. The 2005 Top Freshman Sire, based on 2005 earnings of eligible progeny, was presented to Perigee Moon.

Several Ontario-Breds were acknowledged with 17 photo awards being presented for Historical Grade 1 Canadian or Open Graded Stakes winners, along with 45 CTHS Certificates of Recognition presented to the breeders of Ontario-Bred Stakes Winners.

Four members received awards in recognition for their loyal and supportive efforts for over 25 years within the CTHS industry and their long-term contribution to the Thoroughbred breeding industry. The Jockey Club of Canada's 2005 Leading Owner in Ontario award was presented to Sam-Son Farm.

A silent auction consisting of numerous quality items and stallions seasons also took place during the evening's soiree, with the net proceeds to be provided to the LongRun Thoroughbred Retirement Society.

"We're extremely pleased once again with the excellent turnout and support," said Julie Coulter, General Manager of the CTHS. "We really appreciate everyone's contribution and would like to thank our sponsors, the individuals and organizations in making this evening such a great success."

The Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society (Ontario Division) is a non-profit organization representing breeders within Ontario by promoting Canadian-Bred/Ontario-Foaled Thoroughbreds, both nationally and around the world.

Acknowledgement of 25 Year Members

Since 2000 we have honoured 89 members who have been loyal to this industry for 25 years plus. It was felt that members who have stayed with the CTHS and supported all our goals were deserving of this recognition.

This year we are pleased to add four members to this list as follows:

Curraghmore Farm
 Janet W. Faloney
 Hope Stock Farm
 Jack M. Wright Jr.
